Thank you for viewing us on the law, we have been assisting offenders with criminal defenses in and out of the court room for over three decades.

At Blumberg & Associates, our lawyers understand the inequities in the criminal justice system. Taxpayers provide prosecutors and police nearly unlimited resources to prove their cases. The public defenders provided by the state are often overworked or young, inexperienced attorneys.

The criminal defense attorneys at Blumberg & Associates strive to provide our clients with a level playing field. Bruce Blumberg has over thirty years of experience handling a wide range of criminal defense cases.
