The Colleran Firm has been handling medical malpractice and personal injury cases for decades. Our founding attorney has been practicing for more than 40 years and leads a team of experienced trial attorneys. We have the legal training, resources, and dedication to aggressively pursue the maximum compensation in cases of personal injury.

We represent people in Philadelphia and throughout Pennsylvania and New Jersey who have been seriously injured through medical malpractice or birth injuries. We also accept slip and fall claims or other premises liability accidents and a wide range of personal injury matters, including motor vehicle accidents.
