At Simmons Hanly Conroy LLC, we are committed to representing clients across the country including Chicago, Illinois; New York, New York; San Francisco and El Segundo, California; and St. Louis, Missouri. Headquartered in Alton, Illinois, we handle personal injury cases that involve mesothelioma and asbestos matters, pharmaceutical drug litigation, commercial litigation, complex matters such as trademark lawsuits and environmental litigation.

The focus of our attorneys at Simmons Hanly Conroy LLC is to advocate for clients regardless of whether they have been seriously injured in an accident or if their company has fallen victim to unfair business practices. We combine a staff of over 70 lawyers, national resources and outreach, as well as a focus on customer service, to provide our clients with the support and help they need during a difficult time.

Since we opened in 1999, our practice has relied on our attorneys' diverse and comprehensive experience to tackle even the most complex cases. We have a proven track record of success, and many of our attorneys have received a number of honors. They have been named in The National Trial Lawyers: Top 100; they have received the highest rating possible of AV Preeminent from Martindale-Hubbell; and they have been named in The Best Lawyers in America. Our firm has cumulatively secured more than $5 billion in verdicts and settlements on behalf of our clients. These achievements include securing a $250 million verdict in a case involving exposure to asbestos and obtaining a $3 million verdict in a case against a major drug manufacturer.

Our team at Simmons Hanly Conroy LLC works closely with clients through every step of their case. Litigation is not a quick process. However, our attorneys have the staying power to aggressively represent clients regardless of how long it takes. We stand on a solid foundation of values and give personal attention and respect to every client.
