As a young adult, Sydney found herself pondering what kind of “job” would allow her the opportunity to work with people who really needed her help. As she grew older, she began to realize that practicing law and specifically, becoming a plaintiff’s trial lawyer, would afford just that opportunity.

Now, Sydney proudly describes her “job” as a new opportunity each day to help someone who is going through some of the most difficult circumstances of a lifetime.

Ms. Lynn’s practice is devoted exclusively to working with injured individuals, whether from a car accident, a fall, an on-the-job injury, or a defective product. Additionally, she works with people who are seeking Social Security benefits due to an illness or injury.
