My name is Steven F. O'Meara, and I'm a lawyer who specializes in criminal defense and personal injury matters. For over twenty (25) years, I have had the privilege of serving clients in multiple practice areas, and that experience means that I'm able to handle the difficulties and challenges of several types of legal problems. What I've learned over the years is that whether I am defending someone on a traffic citation or I am advocating against the death penalty for a client, the passion and dedication must be the same. If I do not set the same standard for every single client, then I failed to uphold my promise to provide the very best representation possible. Call the Law Offices of Steven F. O'Meara at 610-565-9200 today for experienced and aggressive representation.
