Wade Law Offices offers comprehensive estate planning legal services for individuals and families of all sizes and levels of wealth. Our services include asset protection, wills, probate, trusts, and real estate transactions. Estate planning often involves much more than simply drawing up a will. If you have real estate or assets that total more than $150,000, estate planning with an experienced attorney is a must.

Your lawyer will be an expert in estate planning, wills and trusts of all types. For more than a decade, Wade Law Offices has been helping individuals and families of all types of backgrounds and incomes with common-sense estate planning designed to preserve their wealth and pass it on to beneficiaries and succeeding generations, according to their wishes.
