We do Bankruptcy differently. I have a 100% success rate, with over 2 decades of hands-on experience helping people get out of debt while maintaining their dignity. It starts by sitting across the desk from you and going over everything line-by-line instead of giving you a bunch of forms to fill out. It concludes with the fresh start you deserve, and the ability to keep what you can afford, while getting rid of those things that have become losing propositions as financial obligations.
