The Elder Law Firm of Clements & Wallace, P.L. is dedicated to serving the legal needs of senior Floridians. We strive to provide accurate and current legal advice to seniors and their families in a professional and sensitive manner. Our firm is unique in having both partners with an extensive background in elder law. With over three decades of combined elder law experience, we have a proven track record of success that can provide you with peace of mind in a complicated world.

Our broad practice areas usually meet all of our clients' legal needs, providing the convenience of "one-stop shop." We often represent individuals and families over extended periods of time through many important life events and changes. From traditional estate planning, to planning for long-term care through asset protection, to qualifying for Medicaid benefits or other government assistance, to incapacity issues, to administering your estate, trust or will, we can meet your needs.
