Many people ask how we chose to practice exclusively in accident and injury law. For us, it was an easy decision. Our attorneys, Matt Hansen and Ken Christensen, have both been involved in serious car accidents and have seen firsthand how important it is to have excellent legal representation. If you've been injured by someone else's mistake, you're at the right place. As authors of the Idaho Accident Book, there is no one better to handle your case and tell your story to the insurance company. Whether your injuries are severe or mild, we will fight for the compensation that you deserve. We will handle your case with expertise, honesty, and compassion. We are here to serve you.
