Established in 2000, Noel & Bonebrake is a law firm with a tradition of quality representation and an impressive record of results. The personal injury lawyers of Noel & Bonebrake serve clients on both sides of these types of disputes. We represent injured plaintiffs who deserve full compensation for their injuries, as well as defendants, who should only be held accountable for harm they actually caused. Our family law attorneys provide personalized and highly responsive representation for divorce and other issues related to family law, including alimony, child custody, child support and the division of marital property.
